Joiner Trade Solutions®, a service offering of Joiner Law Firm PLLC, is dedicated to delivering the highest quality and most effective U.S. trade compliance training available in the market.

Introduction to the EAR: How to Determine if You Need a License from BIS to Export, Reexport, or Transfer Your Item

In this introductory Joiner Trade Solutions® eLearning course, we cover the following eight concepts for determining whether a license is required from BIS to export, reexport, or transfer your item:

- Transactions subject to the ITAR (brief overview)
- Items and activities subject to the EAR
- EAR classification
- License requirements based on the Commerce Country Chart
- Embargoed countries
- Prohibited end-users
- Prohibited end-uses
- License exceptions

This is a great course for those who are new to the EAR or who just need a refresher. We strive to use plain language while maintaining fidelity to the EAR. We use the latest instructional methods to deliver training content designed to improve or enhance the job performance of personnel involved in the international trade compliance arena.

The screenshot shows a video player interface for an eLearning course. On the left is a dark red navigation sidebar with a white menu. The main content area has a white background with a blue and white header. The title of the course is 'How to Determine if You Need a License from BIS to Export, Reexport, or Transfer Your Item'. Below the title is a 'Welcome' section with a blue background and white text. The text reads: 'Welcome to the exciting world of export compliance! This course is designed to help you determine if a license is required under the Export Administration Regulations (EAR), to export, reexport or transfer your item.' Below this is a box with the text: 'By the end of this course, you should be able to:' followed by two numbered points: '1. Describe why, how, and the extent to which the U.S. government regulates exports, reexports, and in-country transfers.' and '2. Apply the License Determination Flowchart (LDF) to determine if a license is required from the Bureau of Industry and Security for your contemplated export, reexport or in-country transfer.' Below the points is the text 'Click NEXT to continue.' In the bottom right corner of the video player, it says '01 of 14'. The video player controls are visible at the bottom.
